

Vestel Electronics A.S. Supplier Registration Data Privacy Statement

Data Privacy: Vestel may collect, maintain, and process information provided by such parties to Vestel. These information will be used in the Purchasing and other departments of Vestel and also its subsidiary companies.

Confidentiality: You and your company must keep any information through the Vestel Supplier Portal and Registration Page as confidential. If you registered as a potential supplier to Vestel Supplier Portal, maintaining the confidentiality of your account and password that will be given in the second step on your own responsibility. Failure to do so may result in immediate discontinuance of your account without notice.

Disclaimer: Vestel can use the information you submitted for prequalification purposes. Vestel will have no liability for any cost incurred during the registration process. This preregistration applying for to become Vestel's vendor does not guarantee a promised purchase order to provide goods or services to Vestel, and also does not bind Vestel to any agreement.

Confirmation: By accepting the Terms and Conditions, you certify that you are authorized to submit the information for or on behalf of, the person or entity identified; and the information provided is true and correct; and you fully understand and agree with Terms and Conditions.

Amendment: Vestel may update the Terms and Conditions, and reserves the right to make changes to its policies at any time without any notice.